DOB 12 July 1983, Brisbane Qld.

Summary

- Scott Denholm began painting traditional landscape scenes in 1993, age 10 and received two years of tutoring from local artists.
- Scott's family moved to the Sunshine Coast in 1996, he soon after took up surfing and started painting seascape and surfing scenes.
- At age 28, Scott's interest and dedication to the environment led him on the path in 2011 to becoming the world's first and only eco conscious surf artist, with the goal of educating surfers and artist about using eco friendly materials and awareness of marine conservation issues.
- Now painting contemporary ocean scenes, Scott is constantly striving to improve and mature his style to appeal to a wider audience.
